Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 13, 2010

LUKE 7:36-- 8:3

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME (2 Samuel:7-10, 13; Psalm 32; Galatians 2:16, 19-21) KEY VERSE: "And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace." (Lk 7:50).

READING: Jesus was a dinner guest at the home of a Pharisee (Simon the Leper, Mk 14:3-9). Reclining at table in the fashion of the Greeks, a woman came into the banquet room uninvited and threw herself at Jesus' feet, anointing him with costly perfume. Her act was symbolic of Jesus' role as God's "anointed one" (Greek, Christos, Hebrew, Mashiach), and can also be viewed as preparation for Jesus' death and burial. As host of the banquet, the Pharisee had not provided the normal courtesies for his guest (greeting Jesus with a kiss and bathing his feet). His hospitality seemed to be mixed with hostility. The Pharisee was critical of Jesus' acceptance of the touch of a woman, an unclean, known sinner. Jesus addressed the unspoken thoughts of his host with a story of a money lender's treatment of two debtors. Although both had reason to be grateful for the mercy accorded them, the one with the greater debt was even more thankful that his debt was forgiven. Likewise, the woman showed great love because of the compassion shown to her.

REFLECTING: Can I act with kindness toward someone I feel is in debt to me? PRAYING: Lord Jesus, help me to be show mercy to others because of the mercy you have shown to me.

Seminarian Ignacio Olvera My name is Ignacio Olvera, I am twenty two years old, and I am a seminarian for the diocese of Dallas. I am originally from the state of Jalisco in Mexico. I felt the called to become a priest when I was about seven years old and this was thanks to God and to the good example of my pastor back in my home parish. When I was fifteen years old, I decided to join the high school seminary in Aguascalientes, Mexico where I spent three years. After this I came to study at Conception Seminary College in Conception, MO. Where I studied a year of English as my second language and I just recently finished my third year of philosophy. I am quite glad to be here in St. Anthony parish working this summer with all of you and I am very thankful to you all for your warm welcoming. I look forward to help you in what you may need and to get to know you. I will pray for all of you and I will ask you to pray for me and for my vocation as well. May God bless you!

Dallas, Tx. Sharon's conversion story reveals how her "New Age" influence may have unwittingly played a part in several personal tragedies, and how God's Saving Word brought her out of that darkness and into the Light of Truth! Her testimony exposes the hazardous aspects of recent New Age block-busters such as "The Secret," "A Course in Miracles" and Eckhart Tolle's "A New Earth" and in doing so reinforces the saving Truths of The Catholic Faith.
