Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 11, 2010

LUKE 10:25-37 FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

(Deuteronomy 30:10-14; Psalm 69; Colossians 1:15-20) KEY VERSE: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself" (v 27). READING: A scribe (a "lawyer,") was one well versed in the law of Moses. When a scribe asked what he must do to gain eternal life, Jesus told him that the answer was found in the scriptures: to love God wholeheartedly (Dt 6:4-5) and to love one's neighbor (Lv 19:18). When the scribe asked, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus told the parable about a good Samaritan. Since there was deep hostility between Jews and Samaritans, the words "Samaritan" and "neighbor" were generally not used together. Yet Jesus said that it was a Samaritan who took the time to rescue a man who was left to die by the side of the road. It would have been just as shocking for Jesus to say that the priests and Levites rescued the man as that would have made these religious people "unclean" (Nm 19:16). Yet Jesus said that the priests and Levites went off to do "holy" things in Jerusalem, while the despised Samaritan was moved with God's compassion and treated the wounded man with mercy. Jesus told the scribe, and tells us as well, to go and do likewise to the "neighbor" we meet along the way. REFLECTING: In what ways did I show love of God and neighbor today? PRAYING: Lord Jesus, help me to love my neighbor as I love you.
