August 1, 2010

LUKE 12:13-21 EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23; Psalm 90; Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11) KEY VERSE: "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions" (v 15). READING: In Jesus' time, respected Rabbis were often called upon to settle disputes. When a man approached Jesus regarding a quarrel over the family inheritance, Jesus asked, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" (Lk 12:14). Jesus refused to intervene in this shameless argument about money. He then began a long discourse on the nature of material possessions. Jesus warned his disciples to be on guard against greed, since for one's life did not consist in an abundance of possessions" (Lk 12:15). Jesus told a parable about the folly of focusing on material wealth. In the story, a rich man's barns were full, so he made plans to build even larger ones to store his harvest. He never saw beyond this world; all his plans were made on the basis of his life on earth. The man presumed that he would have many years to enjoy his prosperity, but he gave no thought to God's plans. Nor did he give any thought to sharing his wealth. When death came unexpectedly, the man's earthly riches counted for nothing. He was a "fool" who was so absorbed in his worldly goods, that he lost sight of God's eternal treasures. REFLECTING: Would I be ready if the Lord called me home today? PRAYING: Lord Jesus, help me to realize that you are more precious than any riches I might possess.
