LUKE 12:32-48 NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Wisdom 18:6-9; Psalm 33; Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19) KEY VERSE: "Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival"(v37). READING: The early Church expected the imminent return of Jesus Christ. In speaking of his second coming, Jesus described himself as a master returning from a wedding and expected to find his servants vigilant on his arrival. Likewise, his disciples should never leave a task undone that ought to be finished before Christ's return. Jesus made the unlikely comparison of himself to a thief in the night (1Thes 5:2). He pointed to the uncertain hour of his return telling his disciples to be prepared whenever he might come. The faithful servant who watched over the household (the Church) would be rewarded when the master returned. Unfaithful servants would be punished for their shameful behavior. Jesus warned these future leaders of the Church that they would be held more accountable than those who acted out of ignorance. If Jesus' followers are faithful servants who watch over the household of God, the Church here on earth, they will be rewarded for their fidelity. REFLECTING: Am I a good steward of the treasure and talents the Lord has given me? PRAYING: Lord Jesus, help me to be a faithful and trustworthy servant of you and your people.

PROPER ATTIRE FOR MASSES

The Liturgy Office has been receiving requests for guidelines on the proper attire in church. The summer season usually sees an increasing number of people who come to church to attend Mass or other liturgical functions dressed in a way that disrespects the sanctity of the House of God and the sacredness of the Liturgical Celebration.

This is a difficult topic. We do not want to suggest that one is not welcome at a Sunday liturgy without expensive clothing and yet, out of respect for what we are doing at Mass and as an example for young children, a modicum of propriety is expected.

The goal in dressing for Mass should be not to attract undue attention to oneself. It must be considered that some people, out of necessity, come to Mass wearing the clothes required by their profession, however, under normal circumstances attire should reflect the solemnity of the Mass. One should aim for, "you look nice today," as opposed to "My gosh! Did you see what she or he was wearing today?"

The faithful are advised not to wear caps, tank tops or jersey shorts during Mass. Women are also asked not to wear spaghetti-strap tops, short skirts, skimpy shorts or sleeveless shirts with plunging necklines. Simply put – beach wear, lounge wear, etc. are not appropriate attire.

What we wear says a great deal about what we value. If you are a public minister in the liturgy, a lector, a Eucharistic minister, or a cantor, for example, you should dress with extra care, so that your appearance does not pose a distraction to the worshippers. We usually dress well when we go to things that are important to us, and as Catholics, this is the most important thing that we will do each week. The manner in which the minister dresses is part of the reverence that is shown to the Lord present in the Eucharist as well as respect shown for God's holy people.

"Bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and joy of the moment when Christ becomes our guest.

Manera Apropiaada de vestirse para la Misa:

La oficina de Liturgia ha estado recibiendo peticiones para guiarnos en la manera apropiada de vestirse al ir a la iglesia. En la temporada de verano generalmente se ve un incremento de personas que llegan a la iglesia para asistir a Misa o a otras funciones litúrgicas vestidas carácter sagrado de la Celebración Litúrgica.

Este es un tema difícil: No queremos sugerir que no son bienvenidos a la liturgia de domingo si no traen ropa capa – y además se espera una cierta cantidad de respeto por lo que estamos celebrando en la Misa y como un ejemplo para los niños pequeños. Lo ideal al vestirse para la Misa debería ser no atraer la atención indebida hacia uno mismo. Se debe considerar que algunas personas, por necesidad, llegan a Misa usando la ropa que requieren para su profesión, sin embargo, en circunstancias normales la manera de vestirse debe reflejar la solemnidad de la Misa. Uno debería tener como objetivo el que la gente diga "te ves bien hoy" en lugar de que digan "Cielos, ¿te fijaste lo que esa usando el o ella el día de hoy?"

La fidelidad no aconseja no usar gorras, tank tops o shorts durante la Misa. A las mujeres también se les pide que no usen blusas con tirantes, faldas cortas, shorts o blusas sin mangas y escotadas. Para abreviar ropa de playa, o para andar en casa no es ropa apropiada para llevar a Misa. La
