

Dear Prayer Warrior for Life,

As the killing continues, we continue to stand for life outside the “Five Wounds of Dallas,” the five abortion centers that take God’s children from us. Southwestern, the late-term abortuary, kills babies through 6 months of pregnancy for any reason. All people of faith throughout the Dallas area are invited to stand with us to end this scourge on our city during the Fall 40 Days for Life-Dallas Prayer Vigil from September 22 through October 31.

The first 40 Days for Life campaign in Dallas – the second in the nation – was a 24-hour prayer vigil in front of Aaron’s late-term abortion center. This vigil was extremely sacrificial – it was cold and took place over the Christmas season. God honored our sacrifice. Not only did Aaron’s late-term abortuary close in the summer of 2008, bringing the number of abortuaries in Dallas from six to five, but as you drive eastbound on LBJ Freeway between Preston and Hillcrest, you will see that the former facility where so many babies lost their lives has also been leveled to the ground, without even a trace.

It is time to hold another 40 Days for Life Vigil. With expectant faith that God will hear and answer our prayers for an end to the killing, Dallas will be joining once again with hundreds of cities nationwide in this fall’s campaign. All people of faith, across all denominational lines, are invited to pray and fast for an end to abortion, especially late-term abortions at the Southwestern late-term abortuary at Greenville Avenue and Royal Lane. Just as we did at Aaron’s, the faithful of Dallas will blanket this abortion facility with 24 hours of prayer, 7 days a week, knowing that God will hear our endless pleas on behalf of the unborn.

This is where you come in. We need your help to effect this 40 Days for Life-Dallas Fall Campaign in our community, and I wanted to ask you to prayerfully consider taking a role in this life-saving effort.

St. Anthony has adopted Monday, September 27 and Thursday, October 21 from midnight to midnight to stand and pray at the peaceful vigil outside of the Southwestern late-term abortuary located at 8616 Greenville Avenue (northeast corner of Greenville Avenue and Royal Lane) in Dallas.

Would you be able to sacrifice one hour or more of your time to pray?

This is not a protest. There will be no yelling and no graphic images. There will be prayerful servants of God, praying for the unborn children who are scheduled to die and for the conversion of hearts of the abortionists, staff, and the abortion-bound parents. You will not be alone. We are scheduling at least two prayer volunteers every hour. This simple act of prayer may be the only act of love that these poor children ever receive. Won’t you please join us?

Please let me know what hours you can sacrifice by contacting me at: macs.cole@verizon.net or by phone at 214-868-5254. We will also have sign-up sheets after the weekend Masses.

Thank you in advance for your commitment, and may God bless you!

Mike Cole
