LUKE 13:22-30 TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Isaiah 66:18-21; Psalm 117; Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13)

KEY VERSE: "Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able" (v 24).

READING: As Jesus journeyed toward Jerusalem, he stressed the urgency of answering God's call. Someone asked, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" (Lk 13:23).

They were certain that the kingdom of God was for the Jews and that Gentiles would be shut out. Jesus declared that entry to God's reign was not automatic but the result of a strenuous effort (Greek, agonia, to "agonize," or "struggle"). The door to the kingdom was a narrow way through which disciples must pass with singular determination. The door would not remain open indefinitely. The faithless ones who delayed their conversion would not be admitted, while the faithful would be welcomed to share fellowship with the saints of old. Since those to whom the invitation was first extended rejected Jesus, others would take their place. They would come from the four corners of the earth to share the banquet in God's eternal reign. REFLECTING: Have I repented of my sins so that Jesus will welcome me into his kingdom? PRAYING: Lord Jesus, help me to be converted daily to do your will.
