Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 29, 2010

LUKE 14:1, 7-14 TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29; Psalm 68; Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a)
KEY VERSE: "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted" (v 11).
READING: Jesus shared the Sabbath meal at the home of a leading Pharisee, and he used the opportunity to teach a lesson on humility to both host and guests. Noticing the competition for the seat of honor at table, he suggested that the guests take the lowest place. Should the host move them to a higher position they would be honored, and they would not be embarrassed by being asked to take a lower position. Jesus reminded the host not to invite only the wealthy and important people to his home, but should open his doors to the weak and powerless. Although these poor were in no position to repay him for his generosity, he would be richly rewarded at the "resurrection of the just" (v 14). God's repayment will be far better than anything another person can do for us. REFLECTING: What is my attitude toward the underprivileged? PRAYING: Lord Jesus, teach me to imitate your charity and humility.

Our recent VBS – "The Mass Comes Alive!" – was a phenomenal success! With 125 registered students, 20 teen volunteers and over 30 adult volunteers, everyone had a week filled with the Holy Spirit and the grace of God through His Sacrament, the Eucharist. Thank you to all our volunteers who gave of their time and talents to bring this beautiful program to our youngest parishioners.

If your child participated in VBS, their quilt squares are available to pick up in the Atrium after each Mass this weekend. Those squares not picked up will be mailed to your home the following week. Thank you to each and every child for their beautiful artwork that graced the walls of Father Pondant Hall.
